A Great Advantage to Working Men

J. A. Maples, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidney and severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me and I have my highest praise."

Wanted—A girl for general housework. L. Gerrard, 420 West 16th St.

Do you recognize that face? Everybody in Columbus and the south part of Platte county does and so do all the teachers in the county. But for the benefit of our readers who have not had the pleasure of meeting him, we take pleasure in introducing him as the republican candidate for county superintendent, Gideon Braun, of Loup township. He is a young man strong in all the qualities that go to make up the best type of American citizenship, and intensely interested in everything pertaining to educational affairs. The people of Platte county will make no mistake in placing their schools under the charge of a home boy like him.

SHAVING IS NOT FATAL.

Barbers Nowadays Do Not Use Hammers and Cold Chisels.

In reply to a correspondent who says he yearns to have his flowing beard removed and yet lacks the Spartan firmness of the early martyrs to face the ordeal and make a pathetic appeal for advice the alfalfa editor of the Emporia Gazette unfeeling remarks:

"The alfalfa editor can offer no advice or encouragement to such a trembling soul. It seems probable that he has worn his whiskers for many years. It is likely that he hasn't purchased a shave for a quarter of a century and therefore is ignorant of the improvements in the art of shaving which have been achieved in recent years. It is no longer like going through a slaughter house to an open grave to be shaved by an expert barber. In fact, that operation has been so shorn of its terrors that many eminent citizens consider it a pleasure to visit the barber. It is no longer necessary to strap a patient down in the chair before shaving him; neither is it necessary to administer anesthetics to his whiskers."

"The man whose only reason for wearing whiskers is the fact that he fears the barber shop will gain little sympathy. If he tries to explain that he cannot shave himself without suffering the agonies of the all fired he will gain less. Such excuses might have had some force long ago, when barbers used hammers and cold chisels, but science has made giant strides in recent years, and the country is full of painless barbers, and a clean shave costs no anguish or inconvenience."

MICROSCOPIC MESSAGES.

How a Single Pigeon Might Carry a Whole Library.

For more than 2,000 years carrier pigeons have been used to carry messages when no other means sufficed, and during the siege of Paris, when 363 birds were sent out from the doomed city, one of the birds performed the almost incredible feat of carrying to the outside world on one trip no less than 40,000 messages averaging twenty words each. This was 800,000 words, or the equivalent of five or six average novels.

This marvel was accomplished by means of microscopic photography, the messages being first printed with ordinary type and then photographed and rephotographed until they had been reduced several hundred diameters. The final photographs were taken on films or pellicles of collodion, each of which, about two inches square, contained 50,000 words. A dozen of these films, rolled up in a quill, weighed but one twenty-eighth of an ounce. The messages could, of course, be read with a microscope without the necessity of rephotographing and enlarging.

Under favorable conditions and for comparatively short distances pigeons have carried as much as three-quarters of an ounce. Using the photo reduction method, it would therefore be possible for a single bird to carry messages equal in words to no fewer than 120 ordinary volumes.—Harper's Weekly.

Whistler's White Lock.

As long as the name of James McNeill Whistler lives among those who saw him it will recall the famous white lock which stood out so conspicuously from the mass of his black hair. It was, as he used to say himself, "well placed" and was always treated from the harmonious point of view to develop its greatest effect in his appearance. One day when Dorothy Menpes, daughter of the well known English artist Mortimer Menpes, was a baby and was asleep on her pillow Whistler went to see her. A white feather had by chance settled on her head and lay in a spot exactly corresponding with the white lock on his own head. "That child is going to develop into something great," he exclaimed, "for, see, she begins with a feather, just like me!"

The Benefits of Maneuvers In Texas

By General WILLIAM H. CARTER, Commander of Troops on Mexican Border

OUR army on the Mexican border is BETTER PREPARED today in equipment, details of supply and from the fact that it has been serving in larger bodies, in regiments, etc., than it was in 1898, when companies, battalions and regiments were brought together for the first time from distant stations, hastily organized into divisions and hurried into improvised transports for a tropical service with which the men and officers were wholly unfamiliar.

The present maneuvers have also enabled the graduates of our military schools to make PRACTICAL APPLICATION of the many theoretical problems presented at the institute, where, of course, the work is largely paper. And the practical work involved has led to many minor changes tending toward the perfection of camp equipment.

In addition to this, the maneuvers have been of marked benefit to the COUNTRY in that they taught the railroads how to handle troops—a lesson which would be of GREAT USE in an emergency, should one arise.

A Few Don'ts For the American Girl

By Dr. MARY CRAWFORD, First Woman Surgeon in Brooklyn

THE American woman who wishes to be well should begin the battle for health in her teens, and her mother should help her. In the hands of the young girl lies the future of the woman. Food, clothes and exercise should all be designed to assist her development, not to retard it. For instance, no girl should be allowed to put on corsets before reaching the age of twenty, because they hamper her growth.

A few don'ts which the growing girl would do well to notice are:
DON'T wear French heels or tight dresses.
DON'T lunch between meals.
DON'T eat a pound of candy a day.
DON'T fail to take a daily bath.
DON'T stay up late nights.
DON'T walk in thin, low shoes.
DON'T fail to exercise outdoors every day.
DON'T be afraid of work.
DON'T grow up too soon.

Health and How to Acquire It

By E. R. PRITCHARD, Secretary of Chicago's Health Department

TO those who are ambitious enough to be rich in health I would say make use of this prescription:
Take a HOPEFUL, CHEERFUL view of things. The bigger the dose the BETTER. Don't WORRY over anything, whether you can help it or not. If you can help it do it, but don't worry.

EAT GOOD FOOD AND PLENTY OF IT, INCLUDING MILK, CREAM AND EGGS.

Sleep at least TEN HOURS out of the twenty-four in a room with the windows open. Take EXERCISE every day out of doors, but not enough to make you tired.

City air is at all times filled with all sorts of IMPURITIES. Therefore I would suggest that city people take a trip into the country once in a while.

Patience Required Of Business Men

By E. H. GARY, Chairman of the United States Steel Corporation

I AM thoroughly convinced that, with the conditions existing in this country today in the matter of crops and everything that helps business, within a comparatively short time we will all be busy and have PLENTY TO DO. In the meantime it is going to require patience.

IF WE HAVE PATIENCE I AM SATISFIED WITHIN A VERY SHORT TIME WE ARE GOING TO BE VERY WELL PLEASED WITH THE TRADE CONDITIONS IN THIS COUNTRY.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
This week Monday the boys' gymnasium classes began at the Y. M. C. A. and by all indications this year's work will be the largest and best in the history of this association. It is the association's plan to enroll and interest the majority of the boys of our city.

A special invitation is extended to all the boys of the community between the ages of 12 and 16 years whether members of the association or not, to attend the gymnasium classes next week beginning September 13. This is an opportunity that each boy should take advantage of as it will teach him the importance of gymnasium work. All parents should realize the importance of physical development for their boys because a strong body aids greatly in developing a strong moral character.

HAD FURNISHED ROOMS.

And He Had a Sign Out to Let the Neighbors Know.

In a little settlement on the outskirts of Chicago two houses stand out more boldly than the rest. These two are the domiciles of two Italians of means, who, although being very ignorant men, vied with each other for the social leadership of the locality.

One day a newcomer, in search of temporary lodgings, attracted by a conspicuous sign in the window of the first of these two houses, stepped to the door to make inquiry.

"I see you have furnished room here," he said to the swarthy man who answered his knock.

"Yes," rejoined the foreigner, pointing to the furnished room sign, "dere's da sign."

"Well, if you have one that's suitable I'd like to rent it for a while."

"We no rent da rooms," was the bewildering declaration. "I got my family in here, and dey take up all da house."

"Don't rent any rooms? Why, then, have you that sign stuck in the window?"

"I'll tell you. Las' week dat fellow next door hang such a sign in his front window, an' we'n I see dat I put one of da same kind in my front window, just to show da people dat he ain't only man in dis place dat have his rooms furnished!"—Judge's Library.
